

4 v 2 Possession

The size of the playing area will depend on the age and ability you are coaching.

The four must keep possession.

The two defenders must regain possession and make two touches to get out. If successful, they switch with the pair they won the ball from.

You can make the game more competitive by giving a bonus to the four if they can split the two defenders.